Hi (name removed for privacy reasons),

I've attached you a lot of pictures and the CARFAX report. The reason I'm selling this car under the market value is because I need some money to save my business. Right now I'm having a business trip abroad and I will not be able to handle the sale in person. But I've already arranged the shipping and the title transfer. The shipping is included in the price. The transaction will be made through eBay for the safety of both of us. In order to do this we will have to follow a few easy steps:

- I start the transaction through eBay.
- eBay send you the transaction details.
- they send you an invoice with the payment details.
- you send the money to eBay Motors.
- I ship the car.
- you receive the vehicle and inspect it.
- you accept the vehicle and eBay pays me.

The clean title will be sent along with the car. eBay Motors will hold the money until the car and the title are delivered to you. I think that 5 days of inspection are enough. If the car is not like described you will have to ship it back on my expense and eBay will give you a full refund. This way, you will be able to inspect the vehicle before committing to buy it and I know that you have the money and you aren't just fooling around.

Giving the nature of this transaction please note that my sale terms are final and nonnegotiable. In order to move forward I will need your full name and the shipping address.

Thanks,
Peter
